HOTEL RITZ MADRID

Putting On The Ritz

Welcome to the luxurious Ritz Hotel in Madrid, where Castilian tradition meets international panache at the heart of the Spanish capital. Located between the Prado and Thyssen museums in the fashionable Retiro district the Ritz, with its leafy courtyard, elegant terrace and sumptuous Goya Restaurant, is an oasis of tranquillity and architectural splendour. A magnificent example of the Belle Époque style, the Madrid Ritz has been entertaining royalty and heads of state since its inauguration by King Alfonso XIII in 1910. Today, with its individually designed rooms, superb cuisine and impeccable service, it remains faithful to those standards of excellence that have placed it among the premier hotels of Europe. Come "Put on the Ritz" with us at the crown jewel of Madrid hotels!

Services

Goya offers a menu with Spanish delicacies prepared with the finest seasonal ingredients based on traditional recipes. This menu is complemented by a variety of creative dishes, original in concept and presentation influenced by the French and Basque Cuisine. The creator of this fine Cuisine is our chef Jorge Gonzalez and his team.

While away the afternoon over afternoon tea served in the majestic lobby adorned with classical-style sculptures, original mouldings, marble columns, and Louis XIV-style furniture. Choose from a wide range of carefully selected teas from around the world to accompany an extravagant array of sandwiches, scones, pastries and snacks.

As temperatures rise, the Goya restaurant opens its doors to the Ritz Madrid unique terrace, an oasis of cool and calm overlooking the Ritz gardens.

Take refuge with an icy cocktail in our garden filled with trees as old as the hotel from the Botanical gardens and contemplate the arduous task of choosing from our extensive array of tapas. Here we also offer a light yet exquisite cuisine based on the finest Madrilian and Spanish seasonal products which include a wide selection of grilled specialties, gourmet salads and chilled soups.
